DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to Applicant's amendment filed on March 2, 2009. Claim 5 has been amended. New claim 11 has been added. Claims 1-7 and 9-11 are pending.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-7 and 9-11 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art on record teaches a system of distribution of secured content with timed availability of the secured content provisioned on a storage medium. Controlling access by a user to a data content of a storage medium by defining a start point prior to which decryption of content is inhibited; measuring time; and enabling, responsive to measured time effectively reaching the start point, the decryption of the encrypted data whereby the user has access to the data. The system includes a local secured authorization clock which is set and controlled by an authorization center having a master clock. The local clock is secure that in that its setting may not be altered by the consumer.

However, the prior art on record either taken in combination of singularly fails to teach "wherein the plurality of time conditions are stored as sorted in a chronological order; a work register for storing a time condition from the plurality of time conditions closest to a current date of the system; and a comparator for comparing the time condition stored in the work register with the current date of the system and, when the current data of the system exceeds the time condition: providing an interrupt to the processor; and updating the work register by introducing to the work register a next time condition from the plurality of time conditions stored in the storage element" including all the other limitations recited in the independent claims.

3. Dependent claims 2-4, 6-7 and 10-11 are also allowed for the same reason set forth above.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
